INTERNATIONAL BEATLEWEEK 2025

Welcome to the biggest annual celebration of The Beatles on the planet! If you have never been before, "Where have you been?". You are in for a treat as perennial visitors will well know, many of whom have been attending our festival for thirty plus years in a row – yes, it's addictive!

International Beatleweek is a 7 day, 7 night extravaganza, featuring the music of those four sons from Liverpool who shook the world, John, Paul, George and Ringo. We take over many iconic venues with the sounds of 'The Fabs' reverberating around the city walls.

We have been organising 'Beatleweek' here in Liverpool for nearly forty years and it is simply the biggest and best Beatles festival in the whole world, and right here in Liverpool - where it all began (and continues on a daily basis here at The Cavern Club).

So, what to expect? Typically, there will be over 500 gigs by approximately 70 bands and artists from over 25 countries on 18 stages for 15 hours a day. In addition to this, there will be fans from over 40 countries, united, with the one mission – to celebrate The Beatles!

WEDNESDAY
20TH AUGUST

Officially the first day of madness! Live music is at the forefront today across our three stages (Cavern Front, Cavern Live Lounge and Cavern Pub). From the minute we open our doors at 11am, the music of the Fabs will ring out non-stop until 2am.

Fifteen hours of top-class bands and solo singers, from all around the world, centered in the heart of Mathew Street... what more could you ask for on day one?!

THURSDAY
21ST AUGUST

Day two and we are back on the world famous Mathew Street with three stages across our two Cavern venues. As you spend the day walking down the street where the lads did all those years ago, more bands and more fans are arriving by the hour for the biggest Beatles celebration in the world. One thing you will notice throughout this festival, is the pure enjoyment and joy on people's faces as they listen to the music they love, sharing the experience alongside like-minded people.

The Beatles have always united people through their music and this is no more evident than here in Liverpool this week. Despite another 15 hours of music to be enjoyed in the day, we hope you reserve some energy at the end of the day, as we head into the weekend.

INTERNATIONAL BEATLEWEEK 2025

FRIDAY
22ND AUGUST

On Friday the Cavern stages will continue to flourish, but traditionally this is the day they are augmented by bigger stage shows elsewhere in the city and this year is no exception. We move to Hope Street with gigs in the Everyman Theatre, Ye Cracke, the Philharmonic Pub and the return to The Philharmonic Hall after the recent refurbishment of its famous stage.

In the afternoon, Beatleweek Hall of Famer, Mark McGann, returns to The Everyman to star in his brand new production, 'Mark McGann - In His Life'. He first portrayed John Lennon at this very theatre in 1981, and was subsequently cast by Yoko in the film 'John and Yoko - A Love Story'. His show looks back at his Liverpool roots that led him to portray John and his hugely successful TV and film career as an artist, director and producer. A certain highlight of the festival very early on in the week.

Mark McGann

There will be two other stages simultaneously operating throughout the afternoon in The Everyman Theatre and also various stages in bars adjacent to Hope Street featuring international artists. A very busy afternoon which will be a fab prelude to the first of our theatre shows this year at the stunning Philharmonic Hall.

'John & Paul – Beyond the Beatles' is a show that has been especially put together by the Cavern Club and features two Cavern Club Beatles legends, Adam Hastings as John Lennon, and Tony Coburn as Paul McCartney. Each will perform separately with their own bands to highlight the solo careers of both John and Paul. As always, a lot of work has gone into this show, and it will be absolutely world class. A great start to a memorable weekend. And of course, after the Philharmonic show has finished it is straight back to The Adelphi where bands will perform on three stages until 3am in the morning... At least!

SATURDAY
23RD AUGUST

Ready for another 'Mad Day Out?' Last year, we took everybody to New Brighton for the day, which was seen by many as their highlight of the whole festival. This year we are returning to Port Sunlight for the first time since 2012! Back in 2012, we celebrated the 50th anniversary of The Beatles first official gig with Ringo at Hulme Hall in August 1962. We recently visited the beautiful village of Port Sunlight and realised there's so much more we could do here. There are three more venues and more outside areas that we didn't utilize previously, so we are going to rectify that this year with our 'P.S. I Love You' event (Yes P.S. is Port Sunlight!). We will host stages in Hulme Hall, the Lyceum Hall, Gladstone Theatre, The Bridge Inn as well as an outside stage. Another guaranteed highlight we think. Buses will transport you from The Adelphi Hotel and back. After the buses return you to the city centre we head back to the Philharmonic Hall for our second special concert, 'The Beatles Variety Show!' From Sweden we welcome back Pepperland, as well as a band making their Beatleweek debut. Grammophon Jazzband from France make The Beatles swing like no other and we are sure you will love them. As if that's not enough, opening the show, is John Lennon's original band, The Quarrymen, featuring Rod Davis and Colin Hanton. Not a bad line-up and not a cheap seat in the house so get ready to rattle yer jewellery! Once the final bows have been taken, it is back to The Adelphi for another late night party!

INTERNATIONAL BEATLEWEEK 2025

SUNDAY
24TH AUGUST

Yes, it's the Sunday of Beatleweek, and that only means one thing... 'Convention Day'! This is the big one, a hundred stall holders selling merchandise throughout the day and evening, their stalls bulging with every Beatle rarity a fan could desire. Supplemented with five music stages until midnight and films, interviews, guest speakers and much, much more. A tried and tested format that never fails to excite fans whether it's your first visit or forty first! And again, after the thirteen hours of continuous entertainment, the party continues in The Adelphi bars with live music until 6am for our 'Prellie All-Nighter'.

MONDAY
25TH AUGUST

We successfully organised the Mathew Street Festival in Liverpool for twenty years and it was the most successful annual event in the city's history. It attracted over 100,000 music lovers per day and featured live music from over 40 bands in the city centre and at least six outside stages. Why doesn't it continue? Well for two reasons, first it actually got too big for the city centre and the city couldn't facilitate it anymore both from an operational point of view and secondly a financial situation. However last year there was a brilliant event that we were heavily involved with called 'Liverpool Celebrates – A Tribute to the Mathew Street Festival' which was a huge success. It has already been agreed that it will be staged again in 2025 at The Pier Head on the bank holiday Monday. So, we will be choosing the best bands from the history of the event to give you an amazing afternoon on the banks of the River Mersey. And of course, it will include Beatles music. After that it will be a quick dash to the Philharmonic Hall for the last of our three nights of entertainment in this wonderful venue. This very special show features the one and only, legendary 'The Bootleg Beatles' featuring their own Orchestra, a perfect way to finish our residency at Liverpool's finest theatre! However, the day is not done, it's back to The Adelphi for party time.

Outdoor Stage at The Pier Head

Who's bigger, Elvis or The Beatles? Well, if you're like us, you love them both of course. It was the 27th August 1965 that these two giants of music met for the first and only time – sixty years ago. Our festival finale this year, back in the Cavern Live lounge, features two shows of 'The Beatles vs Elvis'. Three of the finest Beatle bands will be playing early, mid and late sets to state their case, whilst in the other corner, you guessed it, three of the best Elvis tributes will cover everything the King has to offer. Early Elvis, his many films, the 1968 comeback special, and of course...Vegas baby! Make sure you are there to cast your vote, but remember what John Lennon famously said... "Without Elvis there would be no Beatles".
